

Private Gatherings + Experiences

Gather with intention.

Kintsugi Village is a welcoming Detroit setting for gatherings that bring people together with purpose. From leadership retreats and community conversations to workshops, shared meals and meaningful celebrations, we help create the conditions for people to feel seen, connect more deeply and leave with something that lasts.

What Are You Gathering For?

Leadership + Strategy

Retreats, offsites, board meetings, strategic planning and team gatherings.

Learning + Creativity

Workshops, classes, professional development and creative experiences.

Wellness

Yoga, meditation, restorative team days and seasonal wellness experiences.

Community + Nonprofit

Community conversations, fundraising events, team retreats and mission-centered gatherings.

Celebrations

Showers, birthdays, anniversaries, reunions, graduations and intimate milestones.

Youth + Family

Youth programs, family gatherings, parent workshops and intergenerational experiences.

Why Kintsugi Village

One connected setting.

Indoor and outdoor spaces, hospitality, food, nature, creativity and community can come together in one place.

Designed around your purpose.

We begin with why you are gathering and help shape the setting and flow around your people and desired outcome.

A gathering with greater impact.

Hosting at Kintsugi Village helps sustain a place where children, families, neighbors and community leaders can learn and grow.

Planning Your Gathering

The essentials people usually want to know before reaching out.

Good to Know

Group size: Suitable for intimate gatherings and larger experiences. Final capacity depends on layout, timing and use of indoor or outdoor spaces.

Setting: A mix of welcoming indoor and outdoor environments, with the possibility of moving between spaces throughout the experience.

Included support: Space planning, standard setup, guest arrival guidance and on-site support are discussed based on the needs of the gathering.

Food + beverage: Coffee, meals, receptions, chef-led dining and seasonal garden-to-table options may be available.

Parking + accessibility: On-site parking and guest access needs are reviewed during planning.

Technology: Wi-Fi and select presentation or audiovisual support may be available depending on the space.

Timing: Earlier inquiries are encouraged for evenings, weekends, larger groups and gatherings involving food or customized programming.

Starting Investment

Kintsugi Village is a nonprofit gathering place in Detroit inspired by the belief that transformation happens when people come together. Rooted in the Japanese art of Kintsugi, we create spaces and experiences that foster belonging, spark possibility and inspire the Kintsugi Moments that remind us we are stronger, more beautiful and more connected because of our stories.

In Good Company

A gathering place for people doing meaningful work.
